The following preamble and resolutions concerning Vanderbilt University, offered by S. J. Bethea, were presented and adopted:

"Whereas, Vanderbilt University was established by and is the property of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South; and

Whereas, Efforts have been made and are being made to take from our Church this great institution and its splendid property; and

Whereas, Our Bishops, by order of our General Conference, have entered and pressed suit in law to save our University; and

Whereas, Chancellor Allison has decided fully in favor of our Church in this suit; and

Whereas, A majority of the trustees of Vanderbilt have appealed from this just decision; and

Whereas, During the pendency of this appeal the representatives of said trustees made overtures to Mr. Andrew Carnegie asking a large gift to the medical department of the University, suggesting terms making said department independent, and Mr. Carnegie tendered said money on terms not only taking the department and its property away from our Church, but adding comments insulting to Methodism and Christianity; and

Whereas, Despite these terms, said majority of trustees accepted the terms and conditions of Mr. Carnegie. Whereupon a minority of the trustees protested against such acceptance and our Bishops vetoed the same.

Resolved, 1. That the South Carolina Conference condemns all the efforts made and being made to take Vanderbilt University from our Church.

Resolved, 2. That we condemn the utterances and publications of Chancellor Kirkland, Dr. Thomas Carter, and others of the faculty, and of the Board of Trustees, attempting to deny that Vanderbilt University is the property of our Church, and casting reproaches upon our Bishops and others.

Resolved, 3. That we approve the protest of the minority of the trustees of Vanderbilt and the veto by our Bishops of the lawless acts of the majority.

Resolved, 4. That when the decision of the Court of final jurisdiction is made in favor of our Church, as it must be, we insist that Vanderbilt University be put in safe hands as to trusteeship and faculty, so that nevermore our school shall be conducted against the interests of Methodists and Methodism."

(Signed) S. J. BETHEA,
W. P. WAY, AND ELEVEN OTHERS.

REPORTS.

Board of Education—No. 1.

Whereas, C. P. Hammond, Chairman of the Board of Trustees, and Rev. D. E. Camak, President of the Textile Industrial Institute, located near Spartanburg, S. C., appeared before your board and made formal tender to the South Carolina Conference of the Textile Industrial Institute and property as follows: Twenty-two (22) acres of land, valued at $10,000; one (1) school building in process of erection, valued when completed and furnished at $40,000; a legacy for endowment fund, consisting of one (1) brick store building in city of Spartanburg, valued at $6,500. All of this property at present unencumbered, but in the completion of the present plans there is likely to be a small indebtedness. If there should be this indebtedness, the trustees assure us they will care for it without any embarrassment to the Conference.

We recommend that the Conference adopt the Textile Industrial Institute, located near Spartanburg, S. C., provided that a fee simple title to the property be made to the Conference, and that its control and operation be vested in the Board of Missions of the South Carolina Conference.

The Board of Education has given earnest consideration to the condition of our colleges and schools, viz.: Wofford College, Columbia College, Lander College, Wofford Fitting School, Carlisle School, and Cokesbury Conference School. The reports from these schools show that all of them, with one exception, have entered upon a most prosperous year.

Wofford College.—While the last session of Wofford College was, in many respects, the best in its history, reaching a total of 507 students enrolled, the present session bids fair to surpass it. Already the enrollment has reached 501. Of this number 330 are in the college and 171 in the fitting school. There are 18 professors. The senior class numbers 63 and is the largest in the history of the college. The property and resources of the college show a value of $600,750; of this amount $185,000 is the endowment. There is an indebtedness of $50,000. One of the imperative needs of the college is for three additional instructors. This need could be easily met if the Conference would pay 90 per cent. of its assessment for Conference education instead of 67 per cent., as it paid last year. However, we are glad to report that 73 per cent. has been raised this year; an increase of 6 per cent.

Columbia College.—This institution has begun the year with a good enrollment of students, and the financial report as to current expenses is most encouraging. There are 287 students with 20 teachers. The estimated value of the plant is $245,900 with an indebtedness of $103,500.

Lander College.—The current year 1913-1914 has opened well at Lander College. The faculty has been strengthened, and the enrollment shows an increase over last year. Up to date 259 have been enrolled—160 in the boarding department, 54 day students, and 45 special students, with 20 teachers. The estimated value of the property is $148,800, with an indebtedness of $43,000 and an endowment of $4,400. We bring to the attention of our people the bonds to be issued by Lander College as a desirable investment.

Carlisle School.—Your board is more than gratified with the report that comes from Carlisle School. The spirit of loyalty to the school shown by the citizens of Bamberg is greatly appreciated. We would mention especially the gift of Mr. W. D. Rhoad, of three and one-half (3½) acres of land added to the campus, and the contributions by the people of the community, which have made possible the splendid $16,000 dormitory now in process of erection. Seventy-two (72) students are enrolled with 5 teachers. The property value is $75,000 with $5,000 endowment.

Cokesbury Conference School.—The enrollment for the present year in this school in all departments is 28. There are 5 boarding students and 23 are local students. The estimated property value is $6,000 with $1,000 endowment. It is the desire of your board that our preachers acquaint our people with the very low rates now offered students by this school. We commend the really pioneer work done by Dr. E. O. Watson in the founding of the Horry Industrial School in Horry county. We believe it meets a pressing need in the field of education, and will prove a factor in the solution of some of our problems.

Connectional Interests.—We have carefully considered the reports submitted by the General Board of Education, the department of ministerial supply and training and the Biblical department of Vanderbilt University. They show that the several interests of the Church, committed to these departments, are being cared for with ability and with credit to the Church. We would give special emphasis to and commend the policy of the General Board of Education as embodied in the following resolutions:

1. Concerning "The Religious Development of Methodist Students in State Institutions," the following resolutions were adopted:

"(1) That the presence of a large number of Methodist students in State institutions of learning is a condition which demands the attention and consideration of the Church.

"(2) That the responsibility of the religious welfare of such students is upon the Church, and can be met only by earnest endeavor to furnish them adequate means for their religious development.

"(3) That we express sympathy with every sane and practical method of providing for the religious needs of young men and women in State schools.

"(4) That we recommend this work and its needs to our people, and suggest to men of means among us who are ardent friends and patrons of the State universities that there is a great opportunity for good offered in providing agencies for the religious education, under the direction of the Church, of students in State universities.

"(5) It is the judgment of the board that there are few, if any, more important pastoral charges in the Church, and no more strategic points for the accomplishment of the largest possible results in the moral and religious life of our young men and women than are to be found in the churches located in proximity to the large and influential institutions of learning conducted by the State. We feel that not only should our strongest ministers be placed in charge of these churches wherever it is possible, but that these pastors of colleges and university churches should be provided with assistant pastors, who shall be charged especially with looking after the moral and religious life of the Methodist students in these colleges and universities; and if these churches themselves are not able to support these assistant pastors, we would urge upon the Board of Education and the Mission Board of the Annual Conference most interested to consider the wisdom and advisability of aiding such churches in providing the ministerial assistance that is needed."

2. Concerning "The Development of Religious Leadership in Our Own Schools," the following resolutions were adopted:

"(1) That we recognize the importance of making provision in the curricula of our colleges for these studies which serve to equip young men and women for religious leadership.

"(2) We recommend that a group of subjects be offered by our colleges which are prepared to do so which have for their object the equipment of religious leaders. All of our colleges offer some subjects looking to this end. Your committee has considered carefully the report of Dr. Anderson, representing the Board of Education, and Dr. Chappell, of the Sunday School Board, and feels that by co-operation definite courses of study on Sunday school management and methods may be worked out. Therefore it recommends that Dr. Anderson be reappointed to act with Dr. Chappell to work out and suggest such a course of study.

"(3) That we appreciate the financial difficulties in the way of enlarging their courses of instruction, at least for most of our colleges, according to the suggestions above; and to meet these difficulties we, in co-operation with the Sunday School Board, pledge our assistance in the following ways: (a) Such contributions as we are able to make; (b) such legislation as we may be able to effect to secure means by the assessment plan; (c) joint effort on the part of this board and the Sunday School Board in securing an endowment for religious education in our colleges.

"(4) That we call the attention of the commission on education to the desirability of mentioning at their next meeting the group of subjects given above as subjects of study for which credits toward degrees may be given."

Nominations.—We make the following nominations for trustees of the Textile Industrial Institute: C. P. Hammond, J. W. Nash, Dr. H. N. Snyder, J. W. Speake, S. B. Harper, L. G. Potter, Geo. C. Hodges, M. R. Macomsson, Charlton DuRant, Julien C. Rogers, R. E. Turnipseed.

Trustee of Lander College, to succeed J. S. Connor, deceased, Charlton DuRant.

Assessments.—The General Board of Education has placed upon our Conference an assessment of $4,636.

We recommend an assessment of $17,500 for Conference education, to be divided as follows: Wofford College, $11,500; Columbia College, $4,000; Lander College, $2,000.

We request the Joint Board of Finance to apportion the assessment of $2,100 ordered by the last Conference for a loan fund for ministerial students.

Appointments.—We respectfully ask the Bishop to make the following appointments: John O. Willson, President of Lander College; W. W. Daniel, President of Columbia College; R. O. Lawton, Professor in Lander College; E. O. Watson, President of Horry Industrial High School; D. E. Camak, President of Textile Industrial Institute; Peter Stokes, Conference Secretary of Education; W. I. Herbert, Conference Commissioner of Education; F. W. Dibble, Rector of Cokesbury Conference School.

Peter Stokes, Secretary.

Epworth Orphanage.

We gratefully acknowledge the goodness and mercies of God upon the Epworth Orphanage for the Conference year 1913. During all the history of the institution it has been evident that our Lord has looked upon it with favor, and that he has been specially bestowing his mercies and blessings upon it. The twenty buildings on its campus, the family of 240, of which number 226 are orphans under our care, and a property valued at two hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars, show that it is no longer a small institution.

While the Home is maintained by voluntary contributions the receipts for the year have been sufficient to meet all of the current expenses, and our financial obligations have been met as they became due. This plan of meeting all financial expenses on a cash basis enables the management to make purchases at the minimum cost. The work day contributions have been something larger in the aggregate this year than ever before, and have been a great help to our work. We still emphasize monthly gifts by all our Sunday schools and the special support plan by all of them that will adopt it.

We have no financial agent to solicit help for the maintenance of the Orphanage, and we must, therefore, look to our pastors and Sunday school superintendents to co-operate with the management in providing the necessary means. The time of the superintendent is so largely taken up with the duties at the Home that he has little time to canvass in the interest of the work. We report, however, the institution out of debt and in a financial condition that is encouraging.

The farm and garden have not yielded so well this year as formerly, on account of the severe droughts in the spring and early fall. The vegetable crop was fairly good in the early spring, but during the summer and fall months the supply has been very limited, and for the winter there will be very little to be had.

The oat crop on the farm was larger than usual, but the other crops were smaller. The land was well prepared and fertilized, but the weather was dry too much of the time for a full crop, either on the farm or garden. Enough grain and hay has been raised, we think, to supply our needs, however, and the cotton is being sold for cash, which will help much in the matter of paying current expenses. The Orphanage owns 115 acres of land, about 60 acres of which are in cultivation and the remainder is in campus and pasture. There are a number of home-raised porkers to be used in supplying the family with fresh meats during the winter. The usual number of stock and dairy cattle are owned by the Orphanage. Hauling for the institution is largely done by the older boys, and the work given them on the farm is helpful in their business training, which is a part of their education.

The marble yard and printing office industries have been fairly well patronized during the year. At present the marble yard has more work on hand than usual, and it will be difficult for all orders to be gotten out on time. These departments are operated for the training of the boys, and at the same time to make something above expenses if possible. The board of trustees and managers have advised that other industries be established in the Geo. Holmes Industrial Building, so that we may have a more varied department and that more of our boys may have mechanical training.

At the semiannual meeting of the board on June 13 of the present year, Brother Geo. W. Williams, of Charleston, offered to erect a new home on the campus. This home will be Cottage No. 3, because Brother Williams had already given the money to build two others previous to this—one in memory of his mother and one in memory of his father. The board gratefully accepted his gift for the new building and expressed to him their sincere appreciation. This home is now being erected, and it is the purpose of the management to push the work to completion. When the building is finished it will give room for thirty more children. Other material improvements have been made during the year, particularly in the matter of renewing the buildings on the campus with fresh applications of paint, which very much improves conditions and appearances.

During the year we have received the following bequests: John W. Truesdell, Kershaw, S. C., $1,000; Mrs. M. A. Fowler, Spartanburg, S. C., $100; Miss W. R. Hare, Chester, S. C., $101.83; Mrs. T. G. Herbert, Sr., Leesville, S. C., $50.

All of the industrial training for boys and the domestic training for girls is a part of the education that the children receive; special emphasis is given, however, to the graded school work and religious instruction of the institution. We congratulate ourselves on our present teaching force, consisting of six competent teachers, who are doing faithful work. Six pupils finished the course of study at the closing exercises of the school in June. Five of these were girls. Two of them have secured positions as teachers, and three have found ways by which they have entered college. The boy has secured a position where he can provide for himself.

The Orphanage has a church on the campus; and here are held regularly Sunday school, preaching, revival and prayer meeting services, and in the chapel are held morning prayers. We are not able to estimate the good accomplished by the religious work of the institution, but there are visible results which give great encouragement. Twenty-five of the children have united with the church here this year, and they usually unite with the church as they become old enough to assume its obligations.

The health conditions have not been all that could be desired, but in general they have been fairly good. Several cases of pneumonia have developed during the year, and one little girl, Lurine Hall, passed away from the effects of a complication of physical troubles. Dr. H. W. Rice has been a faithful physician to the Orphanage family, and comes to any sick patient night or day when his services are needed. He has rendered valuable help to the institution for about two years now and makes no charge for his services.

Dr. E. M. Whaley is a specialist, treating the diseases of the eye, nose, throat and ear. His services are sought for by many patients, who live at various points in the State. He has a regular appointment at the Orphanage once a week, and children here have his expert services when they need them. Dr. Dial is still the dental surgeon of the Orphanage, and has regular appointments at the Home with the children. We, with the friends of the Orphanage throughout the State, here express our appreciation for the splendid services, rendered gratis, to the children under our care by these competent and faithful physicians.

Groceries, dry goods, clothing, quilts and fertilizers have been given by friends of the Orphanage, all of which have helped materially in supplying the needs of the Home. The railroads have granted favors in the matter of reduced freight and passenger rates, and the press of the State has shown kindnesses in publishing communications without charge which were written in the interest of the Orphanage.

We note with pleasure the co-operation, in the way of special support, on the part of the Epworth Leagues, Baraca and Wesley Adult Bible Classes.

On account of the lack of room the pressure for the admission of applicants has been unusually strong. The congestion, however, may be relieved, for a while at least, when the new home, now in course of construction, is completed. The Orphanage as it is today and the work it is doing, has been made possible by the benevolence of our people, and they, under divine direction, must provide for its future success. As to its further enlargement, through them, will be furnished expressions of the divine will and the measure of His purpose.

Southern Christian Advocate.

At the call of the chairman the board met in Columbia, S. C., April 17, 1913, for the purpose of receiving and opening bids for the publication of the Advocate for the next quadrennium. The proposals of J. H. Oulla Printing & Binding Company, of Anderson, S. C.; The Baptist Courier Company, of Greenville, S. C., and Rev. S. A. Nettles, of Greenville, S. C., were carefully considered at length. The board unanimously accepted the bid of Rev. S. A. Nettles as the best and most favorable one presented. Rev. S. A. Nettles was elected editor for four years.

It is with deepest regret that the board accepted the resignation of Rev. R. A. Child, D. D., made necessary by his increasing physical infirmity. We wish here and now to record our appreciation of the faithful and efficient service rendered the board by Brother Child.

Your board is gratified that our Church paper continues to maintain its high standard of excellence. We note with pleasure and pride that this old and revered organ of the South Carolina Conference still stands among the foremost of Advocates. We would congratulate the Church and the patrons of the paper and thank the editor and publisher not only for the neat and tasteful mechanical make-up of the paper, but also for the varied news items, the excellent reading matter and the high moral and spiritual tone of its editorial columns.

It should be a cause for rejoicing that the Advocate is finding its way gradually into the homes of such a large number of our people. May we not entertain the hope that the day will speedily come when this organ of our Conference shall find an honored place not only in the homes, but in the hearts and affections of all our people. This hope is made easily possible of realization by the fact that our Advocate is now among the best of all our Church organs and by far the cheapest in price.

We invite the prayerful and active co-operation of the entire Conference and Church membership.

Respectfully submitted,

Books and Periodicals.

We, your Committee on Books and Periodicals, beg leave to submit the following report:

1. Our Publishing House.—We are greatly pleased with the showing all three of our publishing houses are making at the present time. At Nashville, Dallas and Richmond the progress seems equally marked. With a net capital of $1,222,000 our publishing interests have assumed vast proportions. The net sales last year amounted to three quarters of a million dollars. The prosperity of our Richmond house is particularly encouraging. We urge all of our people in South Carolina to patronize our Richmond house. The sales at Richmond last year amounted to $70,000. We note with much pleasure that a dividend of $10,000 was declared in favor of our veterans of the Cross and their widows and orphans.

2. Our Church Papers.—All of our preachers and many of our laymen should have the Methodist Review. It is one of the strongest reviews in the world and its value is appreciated in lands afar and among others than Methodists. We are glad to note that it is not only paying expenses, but yielding a small profit. The Christian Advocate, published at Nashville, is a general organ worthy of a great Church. We are proud of our South Carolina editor of that paper, Dr. T. N. Ivey, who is doing such splendid work for the whole Church. The 15,000 preachers and the 100,000 laymen of Southern Methodism should all be subscribers to this great journal. It is one of the leading religious papers of America. Ten copies of the paper go to Florence and nine to Conway, but there are very few if any other charges that can make so good a showing in our Conference.

Our own Southern Christian Advocate is well printed on good paper and is filled with excellent reading matter and is intensely interesting to all of our South Carolina Methodists. We are glad to note its already large circulation of over ten thousand, but it ought to increase at once to twenty or thirty thousand, for we have thirty-five thousand Methodist families in South Carolina. We wish especially to commend to the whole Conference the Florence plan of sending the Advocate to every family in the Church and making an assessment on the charge to cover the expense of the same. All of our charges can and ought to do that.

It is trespassing on the Sunday School Board's work, but we must commend most heartily the magnificent array of beautiful and ably edited Sunday school papers issued from our publishing house. We are not unmindful of the fact that our own Dr. Beaty is doing much of this important work. The Board of Missions is also to be congratulated upon the excellent and informing journal which they give us in the Missionary Voice. We urge that we at once start a campaign to increase its circulation. As a matter of fact, we are doing almost nothing to circulate this valuable magazine except what the Women's Missionary Societies are doing. But it belongs to the whole Church, and it ought to have tenfold its present circulation.

We are pleased with the Epworth Era in its new form, and are glad to note that it is now almost self-supporting.

We urge every preacher who has not already done so to get the general and Sunday school catalogues issued by our publishing house. Our Methodist books should be more widely circulated and extensively read.

We request the Bishop to appoint Rev. John Paul as editor of the Way of Faith, Columbia, S. C.

Albert D. Betts, Chairman.

Sunday School Board.

Your board is glad to report that at no period of our history have our Sunday schools been more signally blessed of God. While much remains to be done before we shall have reached the goal of most efficient service where largest results are to be obtained, yet there never has been a time when so many trained consecrated workers were enlisted for services and when there were so many schools organized and graded according to the most highly approved modern standards of efficiency. Altogether, the future is big with promise, and glorious conquests await all who may enter this field already so white unto the harvest.

We call attention to the following:

Special Days.—Children's Day services have been held in about 190 pastoral charges. The total amount of collections reported shows an increase of nearly 75 per cent. over last year. As your board sees the matter our duty as a Conference will not have been fully performed until we shall have secured the observance of Children's Day, not only in every charge but by every school. In order that this desirable end may be reached we urge our pastors and Sunday school superintendents to begin early and make diligent effort to have every school in the State observe this day during the coming year.

Rally Day and Decision Day have been promotive of so much good, whenever and wherever properly observed, that we feel constrained to note their importance and to urge their observance wherever possible.

Wesley Bible Classes.—The General Conference of 1910 created the Wesley Bible Class department. The movement has been taken up with great interest. Dr. Bulla's report, received at this Conference, shows that three thousand classes, with a membership of more than eighty thousand men and women, have enrolled in the Wesley A. B. C. department. We are glad that, out of three thousand classes which Dr. Bulla reports, South Carolina claims three hundred and twenty-three.

There was held in the city of Columbia, October 7 and 8, a conference of representatives of our Wesley Bible Classes. There were nearly 400 delegates, representing every district in the Conference, and all attending at their own expense. Among these delegates were to be found ten out of twelve presiding elders and a total of 79 preachers. At this Conference the classes were organized into a Wesley Bible Class Federation.

Sunday School Buildings.—Many elegant and commodious Sunday school buildings have been erected during the year. The time indeed seems to be not far distant when in all building enterprises of this kind the comfort and needs of our young people will be duly regarded. May God speed this day of better things!

Sunday School Literature.—Our Sunday school literature is as good as the best published anywhere and we are glad to report that each periodical is being enlarged and improved as the increasing demands of the time require. The report of Dr. E. B. Chappell, our Sunday school editor, shows a present total circulation of 1,932,285 copies, with a net gain during the year of 78,178.

Field Secretary.—Mr. J. M. Way has been in labors abundant. To him, it may be said, is largely due the very decided progress which has been made in our Sunday school work during recent years.

We respectfully ask that the Conference continue the assessment of one per cent. on pastors' salaries, and direct that the same be apportioned by the Board of Finance to the several districts. We also ask that collections be made in the early part of the year and forwarded to Dr. C. B. Waller, treasurer of the board, Spartanburg, S. C.

We respectfully ask the Bishop to appoint L. F. Beaty to the position of assistant Sunday school editor.

Epworth League.

After a careful study of the conditions of the Epworth League work in the hands of the South Carolina Conference, your board begs leave to submit the following report:

At present there are between eight and nine hundred organized churches within the bounds of our Conference. These organizations have upon their rolls about 95,000 members. This large army of Methodism has within its ranks hosts of young people who need to know by intelligent training something of our great history, polity and purposes. Our Church affords no opportunity for meeting this need so efficiently as in the Epworth League. While information and inspiration may be received from Sunday school and pulpit, yet it is the Epworth League that becomes to the young Christian an open door, affording opportunity for translating his information into trained, effective Christian service.

In making our survey, we note that while we have made little progress, the year 1913 records no backward step in Epworth League work.

In 1912 we had within our bounds 102 registered Leagues, 80 of them senior and 22 junior. This year we report 83 senior and 29 junior Leagues, making a gain of 10 chapters during the year. In 1912 we had 3,617 League members. We have now 3,865, which figures show a gain of 248 League members during the year. While the rate of increase for the year has been very small, yet we are profoundly thankful that our Conference is not losing the ground already taken. Indications are that we are facing a year of great activity in League work.

The State League Conference, held at Chester in the early summer, was full of interest. At this Conference a forward step was taken in the creation of the office of Field Secretary. To fill this office, Miss Sallie Bell Watt, one of the most aggressive League workers of the State, was elected. At great personal sacrifice she gives her entire time to the work. During the short time she has been in the field the League work has received inspiration such as to justify the course of the State Conference in electing her.

In appreciation of the good things accomplished in the past through the instrumentality of the League, and in full view of the greater good possible in the future, your board earnestly begs the privilege of making the following recommendations:

(1) That the preachers of the various charges of the Conference aid in every way possible our field section in the accomplishment of League work.

(2) That at each succeeding Annual Conference the Epworth League anniversary be held along with the other important interests of our church.

G. C. Leonard, Chairman.

Church Extension—No. 1.

The term "Church Extension" has long been misunderstood by the majority of Methodists. To many it has been no more than a fund upon which to draw in time of need. The great principle upon which the fund is raised has been lost sight of, or rather the dollar appears so large that we have failed to see the greatness and importance of the foundation stone.

A better day is dawning and some are beginning to see that on Church Extension is predicated every advance of the kingdom of God. As information must always precede inspiration and intelligent action, your board would urge that every one of our preachers thoroughly inform themselves in regard to this great cause and then give their information to their people. To this end we would recommend first, a careful study of that mine of information.

The Church Extension Hand Book.—Next a perusal of the many leaflets and booklets, published by the Board of Church Extension, which will be furnished free and in any quantities for distribution. When once our people realize the importance of Church Extension it will be one of the most popular claims upon the benevolence of our members. Your board would call special attention to a few of the policies of the General and Conference Boards.

1. Loan Funds.—Thirty years ago the Loan Fund was established and goal placed at a half million dollars. The sublime faith of the originator of this fund is evidenced by their attempt to raise the entire amount in one year. The half million mark was crossed last year, and the General Board requested the corresponding secretary to formulate a definite plan whereby the fund would be increased to one million dollars in the next quadrennium. The Loan Funds of the board are seven in number, viz.:

Annuity Loan Funds, Memorial Loan Funds, Parsonage Loan Funds, Conference Board Loan Funds, District and City Loan Funds, Sunday School Loan Fund and General Loan Fund. Of these funds we wish to emphasize three, viz.: Memorial Loan Funds, Annuity Loan Funds, and Conference Board Loan Funds.

(a) Memorial Loan Funds.—These are established in the name of those whose memory it is desired to honor and perpetuate. The money thus invested is not erected into a shaft of dead stone eulogizing the dead, but it becomes a monument of living service, bringing blessings to the living. Unlike other endowments wherein the interest alone can be used, both capital and interest will forever be at work for the glory of God and extension of His kingdom.

The Memorial Loan Fund, in which we are specially interested, is the Bishop William Wallace Duncan Memorial Loan Fund. At the close of the fiscal year March 31, 1913, this fund amounted to $1,223.69. Realizing that this amount was far too small adequately to express our appreciation of the service of that great and good Bishop, your board last year recommended that an additional assessment of 10 per cent. for ten years be laid on the Conference for this fund. The amount derived from this extra assessment amounts to $1,083.58, which brings the total to $2,307.27.

We would urge our members in making bequests to philanthropic causes to consider the Loan Fund of our Church as the right depository for permanent benefactions.

(b) Annuity Loan Funds.—Our Loan Fund Annuity Bonds should be of special interest to those who are looking for this kind of investment. The General Board has $100,000 worth of Annuity Bonds for sale in denominations of $100 and up. The rate of interest is higher than any long time first-class securities pay and the investment is free from taxation, court fees, etc., and losses and delays in the matter of reinvestment. We would urge our preachers to be on the lookout for those who are seeking this kind of investment and put them in touch with our corresponding secretary, who will gladly attend to all the details.

(c) Conference Board Loan Funds.—At the last session of the Annual Conference your board created a Conference Loan Fund and decided to set apart each year 10 per cent. of the amount collected for said fund. Our first loans amounted to $550. This with what will be added from year to year becomes a permanent fund to be loaned by the Conference Board to churches and parsonages within our Conference.

We trust that all the preachers will advise the churches seeking aid to ask for a loan instead of a donation whenever possible. The interest on these loans is only 4 per cent. and ample time will be given in which to pay them.

2. Washington Representative Church.—We wish again to call attention to that enterprise of the whole Church known as the Washington Representative Church, and urge that all subscriptions be paid immediately. Work on this church will be commenced in the near future and every dollar subscribed is needed.

3. Full Collections.—We appeal to our brethren to do their utmost to bring up full collections next year for Church Extension. No benevolence of our Church accomplishes more dollar for dollar than what is contributed for Church Extension.

4. Applications for Aid.—Application blanks are furnished every church desiring aid from this board. It is necessary that these blanks be properly filled and all information asked for given. Unless this is done it will be impossible for the board to do justice to the application, or act intelligently thereon.

The presiding elders are earnestly requested to see that all applications are in due form before they are presented to the board.

The committee on evangelism begs leave to make the following report:

We note many indications of the ripeness of the time for a successful evangelistic campaign. Special meetings of great power have been reported from many sections of our Conference. These meetings have resulted in many conversions and large accessions to the Church on profession of faith. Especial mention should be made of the evangelistic campaign conducted in the Florence District this year. At the Missionary Institute, held early in the Conference year, the preachers determined to press the campaign for one thousand accessions on profession of faith this year. To this end all of the membership willing to pray and work for a revival were organized into bands. The result has been one thousand and eleven accessions and more than two thousand conversions. The plan used by this district with such signal success is suggested as the plan for every district of the Conference.

We recommend that the entire Conference determine that an increase equal to 10 per cent. of the present membership be the goal for 1914.

In order to accomplish this end, we recommend that every pastor give himself to prayer and personal work and that he enlist the co-operation of the membership of his charge, pledging the membership to prayer and personal work. Thus in the very beginning we recognize our entire dependence upon the Holy Spirit.

We also recommend that each pastor hold a meeting in each congregation of his charge; that he open the doors of the church at the regular appointments frequently; that the Sunday schools observe Decision Day; that the doors of the church be opened in the Sunday school sessions.

We recommend that each preacher report to his presiding elder March 1, June 1, September 1, the number of meetings held and the number of accessions on profession of faith for the quarter and for the whole year. The presiding elder will tabulate these reports of the preachers and publish in the next issue of the Southern Christian Advocate after the dates mentioned above a report of his district.

The Board of Missions begs leave to submit the following report:

We are glad that the Conference missionaries are to receive 98 per cent. of the appropriations. The campaign conducted by Bishop Lambeth, Dr. Rawlings and Dr. Kennedy early in the year has resulted in collections for the Brazil Special amounting to about $10,000. We again urge the preachers to see that all specials for missions be forwarded to Rev. S. B. Harper, Treasurer.

We call the attention of the presiding elders and preachers to the circulation of the Missionary Voice. Our Conference has 1,600 subscribers to the Voice.

The collections on assessments the past year are as follows: Foreign Missions, $19,750.29; Home and Conference Missions, $27,197.78.

We nominate R. E. Turnipseed for Missionary Secretary.

The following committee on evangelism is nominated for the ensuing year: J. W. Speake, S. B. Harper, S. O. Cantey, Dr. W. B. Duncan, and G. C. Hodges.

The assessments for 1914 are as follows: Foreign Missions, $20,400; Home Missions, $6,600; Conference Missions, $25,000. Total, $52,000.

Temperance.

The conflict for the suppression of the sale of intoxicants is fiercer now than ever before. The question was formerly discussed only as a local matter and in a few widely scattered communities. Now it is an acute condition in every community of the nation, and the advocates of temperance are coming to see the necessity for combining their interests and joining their forces for a nation-wide fight of this nation-wide evil.

We rejoice in the movement for a national prohibition law and pledge the Church to its support.

While we want and need a nation-wide prohibition we are immediately and vitally interested in State-wide prohibition. The efforts to suppress the sale of whiskey in dry counties are blocked and hindered by the sale in the wet counties adjoining. This injustice to the prohibition counties can only be corrected by giving all the people of the State an opportunity to make the whole State dry. We hope State-wide prohibition will soon be submitted to all our people by the General Assembly of this State.

The State now has partial prohibition by counties. The conditions in the dry counties of the State vary widely. In some the conditions are good, and the sale of whiskey is by stealth, while in others there is an open and flagrant disregard of the law and an open flouting and disrespect for good morals and the desires of not only the Church, but of all good citizens. This condition results from the weakness and cowardice of the good people combined with the wickedness of the bad.

The Church is unalterably opposed to the whole traffic, and the Church member who fails to do all in his power to drive the blind tiger from his community is inconsistent and recreant to his duty no matter what his professions nor how he votes.

This lawless condition, caused usually by acts and connivance of the enemies of prohibition, is seized upon by them as an excuse to urge a return to the dispensary or saloon. This jumping in the sea to keep from getting wet in a shower has been practiced, we regret to say, by several communities of the State this year.

We urge our members to use every effort to combat this evil, whether legal or illegal, and whether in county, State or national affairs, and above all in their personal lives. We will have nation-wide prohibition when it is man-wide with enough men.

We commend the work of the Anti-Saloon League, and recommend that Rev. J. L. Harley be reappointed State Superintendent and that Dr. J. H. Allen and J. B. Carlisle be elected members of its Board of Trustees from this Conference.

Sabbath Observance.

Your Committee on Sabbath Observance begs to submit the following report:

The religious and humanitarian value of the Christian Sabbath has a theoretical recognition in the history, laws and civilization of our country. But that the practice of many people, many of them members of the Church, is far beneath both the Old and New Testament standards of Sabbath Observance, is not only one of the painfully prevalent signs of the times, but among the facts that forebode present and future peril to the Church and the nation. Sabbath desecration is manifest in many ways; possibly, first of all, in extent, is Sunday travel. We condemn travel on Sunday by train, automobile and otherwise for purposes of pleasure and business. We deplore and condemn the custom of railroads in offering special inducements to Sunday travel by giving reduced rates for week-end trips to pleasure resorts where the sanctities and safeguards of the Christian Sabbath are almost altogether ignored. Secondly, another phase of Sabbath desecration is noted in the matter of amusements, such as the moving picture shows, baseball and golf, played and patronized on Sunday in some of our Southern cities. That these things on the Lord's day is a violation of God's law and the law of our country is admitted not only by Christians, but by good citizens generally.

The question is what can we, as a great Church, do to stem the floodtide of worldliness that threatens to engulf us by turning God's holy day into a holiday?

Your committee would respectfully suggest the following remedies for these evils:

First. We urge the fathers and mothers of our land to make their homes positively religious. One of the safest and sanest methods to secure Christian manhood and womanhood is to begin in the home with the little children. That fathers and mothers see that their children not only attend Sunday school, but church services also, so that the training of the home may be reinforced by the teachings of the pulpit.

Secondly. We recommend that the pastors of the South Carolina Conference preach on the subject of "Sabbath Observance" the first Sunday of May, 1914, and when this date cannot be used, then some other Sunday of that month.

Thirdly. That whereas the Sunday League of America is recognized by our Book of Discipline as an agency that has justified its existence by the fruits of its labor; therefore be it Resolved. That this Conference pledge its sympathy and moral support in accomplishing the ends for which the Sunday League of America stands.

Minutes.

Your Committee on Minutes begs to submit the following report:

We recommend that $1,200 be assessed upon the Conference for the ensuing year for the publication of the Minutes, and that $100 of this amount be granted the Secretary for his general expenses.

We further recommend that 7,000 copies of the Minutes be published.

We nominate E. O. Watson and R. E. Turnipseed as editors for the current year.

Sunday Excursions.

Your committee to secure the passage of some law on the white slave traffic and Sunday excursions make the following report:

We found that already there was a bill relative to the white slave traffic to come before the legislature, hence we gave our attention to the bill relative to Sunday excursions. The bill was formulated by a competent lawyer and after taking the proper course reached the calendar but did not get before the house.

Thos. G. Herbert,
I. W. Bowman.

Thanks.

Resolved, 1. That we hereby express our high appreciation of the unstinted hospitality extended the members of the Conference during the present session by the kind people of Rock Hill, "The Good Town," and that we shall ever pray God's richest blessings upon the entire community.

2. That we appreciate the fraternal spirit on the part of the other denominations, manifested in opening their churches for services conducted by members of the Conference.

3. That we have experienced great pleasure in having with us Bishop A. W. Wilson, Bishop Collins Denny and Bishop John C. Kilgo, all of whom we love.

Watson B. Duncan,
Chas. B. Smith.

To the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, Assembled in Oklahoma City, May, 1914.

Dear Fathers and Brethren: We believe that the time has come when our great Church should insure its own property against loss by fire, tornado, flood and earthquake. We are now paying out to various fire insurance companies nearly twice as much money in premiums each year as we get back in payment of losses.

We, therefore, earnestly urge you to authorize one of our general boards (preferably the Board of Church Extension) to take the necessary steps to insure all the buildings owned by our Church, and to make such assessments as may be needed on the Church, assessing each charge in proportion to the value of its buildings. In our opinion all of our colleges, orphanages, hospitals, etc., should be included in this plan, but such institutions should bear their proportionate share of the insurance assessment.

W. J. SNYDER,
Secretary Pro. Tem. S. C. Board Church Extension.

Rock Hill, S. C., November 26, 1913.

We, the undersigned, do hereby memorialize the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at its ensuing session to constitute the lay leaders of our Church members of the Quarterly Conference.

PETER STOKES,
WATSON B. DUNCAN,
S. A. WEBER.

The South Carolina Conference memorializes the General Conference to be held in Oklahoma City next May, the following:

1. To strike out paragraph 279 of the Discipline of 1910 and insert the following:

"When a member of Annual Conference has been suspended by a committee of investigation, this fact shall be certified to by the Bishop having charge of the Annual Conference of which the accused is a member, and it shall be the duty of the Bishop, within a reasonable time, to appoint a secretary, and in case he cannot attend, a chairman then to proceed in accordance with paragraph 286."

2. Also to strike out paragraph 320-C of the Discipline of 1910 and insert the following:

"When an appeal is held the appellant shall file a written statement of the errors complained of by him and the reasons assigned by him, and upon which he relies, and these errors and reasons must be fully set forth at the time the appeal is taken. The committee shall not consider any other errors than those complained of during the trial before the committee of trial. The appellant shall, either in person or by his representative, state the grounds of his appeal, and as long as his defense is confined to the errors complained of at the time of the trial, before the committee of trial, he shall be permitted to make his argument without interruption.

"The representative of the committee of trial of the Annual Conference from which the appeal is taken shall then be permitted to respond, and the appellant may reply thereto. At the conclusion of the argument the committee shall consider the case privately and announce its decision to the respective parties. If necessary the committee may take the case under advisement for such time as may be necessary properly to examine it, and shall notify the parties of the decision by letter if they be not present when the decision is rendered. If either party have no representative present the committee shall appoint a representative. In the consideration of an appeal the commiteee of appeals shall not reverse or remand the case for a new trial on any mere technicality, nor unless the appellant has had manifest injustice done to him. The decision of the committee of appeals shall be final and its decision shall be reported to the next General Conference for record by that body."

3. Also to insert in paragraph 286 of the Discipline of 1910, after the word "case" in line 9 of said paragraph, the following words:

"Should the evidence in the case show any facts germane to the specific charges and specifications contained in the bill of charges, even though not specifically set forth in the bill of charges, which facts are in the opinion of the committee of sufficient gravity to suspend or expel the accused from the ministry and membership of the Church, the committee shall amend the bill of charges and shall proceed with the trial, provided that the defendant shall be allowed a reasonable time in which to prepare to meet such additional charges. The Bishop presiding or the chairman whom the Bishop shall appoint and the committee of trial shall be the judges whether the evidence shows the facts to be germane."

MEMOIRS.

Rev. Coke D. Mann.

On April 9, 1913, the Reverend Coke D. Mann, of the South Carolina Conference, fell on sleep at Bishopville, S. C. He was the youngest son of William and Sarah Mann; was born in Abbeville county April 2, 1849; joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in his early years; Married Miss Eliza Jane Milford December 18, 1866; was called to preach, and after a struggle yielded; was licensed and entered our Conference December, 1872. He served in almost every part of the State, from mountain to seaside, and always with much success. Over twelve hundred persons were received into the Church by him, and believers were instructed and built up in the faith. He was particularly strong in defending Methodist doctrine, and was sometimes called for outside his charges to meet those who assailed them. He was a member of General Conference in 1902 and was active in its deliberations.

Until a desperate illness in 1903 he was among the strongest of our members, both in body and spirit. Every inch a man. He never fully recovered from that illness, and in December of that year he took a supernumerary relation and located in Walhalla, the scene of one of his most successful years in the ministry. Gaining a little strength he was elected a member of the General Assembly of South Carolina, and was a leader from his first appearance in that body. He was chosen a trustee of Clemson Agricultural College, and discharged faithfully the duties of that post for four years. Failing strength forced his retirement from all office and labor. Month by month the grip of disease became fixed more firmly, and the once splendid body grew weaker and weaker. Hoping for relief he moved to the home of his son, Dr. J. L. Mann, in Greensboro, N. C. Stroke followed stroke until the "last enemy" was victor and he yielded his spirit unto God who gave it.

His last year was a season of quiet submission and patient resignation. His last moments were in undisturbed peace and confident expectation of everlasting life.

Brother Mann was absolutely fearless and he bowed to none but God. His independence was so decided that all were forced to mark it. His uncompromising advocacy of what he deemed right was so forceful that he won many friends—possibly sometimes strenuous opposers. His integrity was unchanging. He had a contempt for anything evasive or underhanded. He was true to his fellow men, gentle to his friends, loving and loyal to his home and kindred. He loved God with a great love, and God honored him with a great success in life. He would willingly have gone to the stake and fagots for truth and Christ. As a preacher he was most impressive, as a Christian "steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord." When death called he was ready.

Our brother is survived by the wife of his youth and later years and by four children—Dr. J. L. Mann, J. Homer Mann, Edward C. Mann, and Mrs. T. H. Tatum. They are the chief mourners, but their sorrow is shared by a host of friends and by us, his brethren of the Conference. But all of us are sure that the soldier of the cross, having fought the last fight and finished the course and kept the faith, has received the crown of righteousness which the righteous Judge gives to them that love His appearing.

John O. Willson.

Rev. Geo. H. Pooser.

George Henry Pooser, son of Major George H. Pooser and Ann E. Pooser, was born in Orangeburg county, South Carolina, January 26, 1838, and passed away in Ridgeway, S. C., at the home of his son-in-law, Mr. A. T. Moore, January 16, 1913. His home at the time of his death was in Columbia, but he had come to visit the family of his daughter, and while here he was stricken with illness which ended in his death.

Brother Pooser was converted under the ministry of Rev. Nicholas Talley, and united with the Methodist Church when only 16 years old. During the Civil War he was a brave and faithful soldier in the Confederate army, receiving painful wounds in two battles. When the war was over in June, 1866, he was married to Miss Martha E. Jennings, of Orangeburg county, South Carolina. This was a most happy marriage, a union of true hearts for life. To them were born eight children, seven of whom survive him.

Soon after this marriage they moved to Arkansas, where they lived for three years, giving his time to teaching. While here in 1888 he was licensed to preach. Returning to South Carolina he fully made up his mind that it was his duty to give all his time to the ministry, so in 1872, at Anderson, he joined the South Carolina Conference with a large and notable class. Among its members was Bishop A. Coke Smith. Thus for forty years Brother Pooser has been one of us, faithfully and cheerfully pursuing his way as a Methodist preacher. Brother Pooser was a good preacher. Men were brought to Christ under his plain and earnest preaching. In his work as pastor he was conscientious and kind with great tenderness and sympathy.

He also wrote much for the Advocate. He always wrote with great candor, and his articles were always read. He wrote exposing what he thought was wrong, expressing views although he knew others—even his friends—would not agree with him.

As a man he was courteous and manly, a gentleman of the old school of the South, but above all he was a Christian—this was to have been expected, descended from the old Palatine German stock that settled in Sax Gotha, now Orangeburg county, in the time of good Queen Anne, and brought up in a home of culture and piety. Also in his own home the spirit of love and unity prevailed. These were the forces that enabled him to bear up and go on with his work on hard charges and scant pay, but he was looking to Him, who is keeping our record on high and who will bottle all our tears and will make our reward sure.

The last three months of his life were days and nights of great suffering, but the grace of God gave victory, and the glory of God was wondrously revealed in him, so that out of that frail dying body came the shouts of triumph, and death was robbed of its sting. Just as the sunlight was breaking over the eastern hills, his earthly sun went down and his saved soul went out into the morning of eternal day. His body now rests in Elmwood Cemetery, in Columbia, S. C.

"And we laid the Pilgrim down to rest
In a Chamber whose window looketh toward the East,
And the name of that Chamber is Peace."

J. B. TRAYWICK.

Rev. Whitefoord McKendree Duncan.

Fifty-six years he lived and labored. In his young manhood he became a Christian, at 18. From Wofford College he graduated in 1884, in his 27th year. It was on this campus where so many life-long friendships have been formed, that we first met. There was a boy in college at that same time whose spirit and experience had combined to bring him to the conclusion (expressed on several occasions to me) that there was no such thing as friendship. The relationship existing between Duncan and myself for those years is only one proof of the fact that the boy was in grave error. It was not an uncommon thing when we were at college for men of full age to be there. Some with full beard and years enough behind them to enable them to know the value of the college days. Dr. Carlisle had a quotation he often used to encourage men of this class: "Never mind how late you come, just so you come fit." A boy of 27 years in these days must be out of college at least six or seven years, or he thinks he has lost a great deal and, maybe, the world has too.

Brother Duncan wanted to "fit" himself for his life work, and it was not with him a question of years. How well he succeeded his whole life testifies. He went to college with a well-defined Christian experience and positive Christian character. From his first appearance on the campus his influence was for good, and it was strong enough to make a decided impression. His was a heart of power. He would naturally get to the front or, if you please, would be in the center and attract the attention of the group of boys he was in.

This, I say, was just his natural quality—leadership. He did not have to try to attract attention. In those college days he was known as a good, strong preacher. His successful career is no surprise to any one of his college mates. Had it been otherwise than as it has been, then there would have been great surprise. He was not hard to approach and he had many friends—all the boys were his friends. He was a good speaker, whether in debate or on the rostrum. The boys were required to declaim at prayers before the faculty and student body. He could speak and think at the same time, and was therefore hard to handle in debate, and the flow of his speech was easy.

He was always in a good humor. I doubt if any of the boys of his college days can remember an exception to that rule of his life. His interest was always in the best things—his time was redeemed. In short, he was an example to the student body of what the president of the college called a "well rounded character." If he was ever called to a "private" talk with the president it was to ask his help in saving some poor wayward boy. How much good he did there no one can ever know in this world. All the fine characteristics of his young manhood grew and developed with his years and surroundings.

As a young pastor, and later as one of added experience, how attractive he was. One only has to go from charge to charge where he has served during these past years to find many scores of men and women who have lost a very dear personal friend in his going away. The art of making friends was only well begun at college. It was a fine art with him. He made himself friends by "making himself friendly." The children loved him. Many of them who were blessed by him in childhood and who may not remember him well are now grown and will ever be helped by the influence of his life.

APPOINTMENTS.

Greenville District felt the thrill of his strong personality for four years. The Methodists of Greenville as well as the city itself felt it for eight. These must have been eight of the best years of his ministry, over one-fourth of the whole of it. He was at his best. After some years of more or less struggling with ill health, he seemed to regain his former vigor, greatly to the delight of his Conference brethren. His first year, however, on the Columbia District, proved to us that our hopes of his permanent recovery were unfounded. About one-fourth of the year he spent in the mountains, away from his loved work. To go away was a task far more difficult than "keeping at it" would have been. Returning from the mountains he looked and felt well and was full of hope and joy at the prospect of getting back with the "boys" and to his work. He told with a smile and a degree of pride, sanctified by profound gratitude, of the repeated need he had had for the services of the tailor who kept his clothes large enough for his rapidly growing body. At the session of the Conference last December he looked as if he might easily expect to go through his second year on Columbia District, but God gave him only half year more and half of it "shut in."

The next time I saw him he was "asleep." Perfectly natural he looked, but his cordial greeting I missed sadly. His genial and hearty laugh and brotherly hand grasp, his eager, earnest inquiry after the prosperity of Zion, were all missed.

Dr. W. W. Daniel, his successor in office, was in charge of the funeral services, which were conducted in Washington Street Church. It was a sad privilege to be among those of his brethren who assisted. The burial was in the churchyard. He was greatly interested in this particular church and talked much of it at Conference. No doubt he would gladly have chosen the place he has for his long rest.

Brother Duncan easily ranked among the first of the South Carolina Conference. His voice was seldom heard during the sessions. It was sounded out clearly, however, all the year. He made no effort to be a Conference leader; had no desire or ambition for it. But he was there all the time and ready to do his part nobly.

He has the "well done" of his brethren, and we believe the Master has received him into His "Father's house of many mansions." God bless the sorrowing wife and daughters. WALTER I. HERBERT.

Rev. Edward A. Wayne was born in Charleston, S. C., April 29, 1879. He spent his boyhood days in the city of Charleston, later moving to Pendleton, where for a number of years he attended school in that town. When quite a young man he moved to the city of Columbia, where he secured work and continued to apply himself to his books.

As clerk for Mr. W. S. Monteith and later as private secretary for Mr. W. A. Clark he showed his sterling worth and bound himself to each of these with cords of love that were never broken. He came to feel toward Mrs. Clark as a son toward a mother, and she as a mother toward a son. In spite of the constant demand upon his time in these offices he still carried forward his studies, entering now the classes in the South Carolina University.

Being admitted to the bar he took up the practice of law, working in the office of Mr. J. S. Muller, of Columbia, S. C., and for six years he followed this life energetically.

He joined the Marion Street Methodist Church in the city of Columbia, and for a number of years was closely identified with all its works. Here he held the office of treasurer and secretary of the board of stewards, secretary and treasurer of the Sunday school and offices in the Epworth League. It was while a member of Main Street Church that he heard the call to preach while listening to a talk by Brother J. S. Beasley. Giving up his place in the law office of Mr. Muller he applied for admission into our ranks.

His physical condition told on him all through his ministry, making him at times to question his call to the work, but catching a new vision he would pick up again and press forward. Wherever he went he was loved and accomplished things in the service of his Lord.

December 9, 1900, he was married to Miss Rebecca Monteith, Dr. John O. Willson officiating. Unto him a wife survives.

His health having so largely failed him he took no work at the last Conference. In the early spring he undertook some office work with J. F. Jacobs, of Clinton, but was soon compelled to give up and go to the up-country because of failing health. Finding no relief he came to the city of Columbia, where among those who have always loved him he passed quietly away July 17, 1913.

During his stay among us he served the following charges well: Lexington Fork, 1907; Langley, 1908-1910; Ridgeway, 1911; Summerville, 1912.

Thos. G. Herbert.

Thomas Jefferson Clyde.

Born in the city of Charleston in 1836; admitted on trial into the South Carolina Conference November, 1859; admitted to the Home on High November 3, 1913. Fifty-three of the seventy-six years of earthly life, Thomas Jefferson Clyde, a holy man of God, an humble servant walking in the steps of his Lord, a flaming apostle and minister of the gospel of redemption, lived, loved and wrought among us to the glory of God in the extension of His kingdom. Three years he served on stations, Newberry, Wadesboro and Camden being the favored ones. Fourteen years on districts, Orangeburg, Greenville, Marion and Sumter being the districts that enjoyed the benediction of his efficient leadership. Thirty-six years he laborer on circuits. One year, the last, he rested, and toward its close entered the rest that remaineth for the people of God. A record few, if any, have ever equaled in length of active service, and no one surpassed in spiritual results. There are scores upon scores who must have greeted him in heaven as the instrument of their salvation. There are multitudes on earth who owe their hope of heaven at last to his faithful ministry. There are few Methodist homes in South Carolina where he was not known, honored and loved.

No man who has wrought among us has been more beloved, and none more worthy of love. He loved and was loved. A towering figure physically, a commanding personality, a keen insight into men and things, a true seer of the things of God, his was a ministry of saving power. The fires of revival—he sometimes called it his Mullins harness in reference to great occasions of revival when he was preacher in charge of that historic territory—glowed in his soul and flamed forth continually in a ministry the heart and soul of which was winning souls to Christ.

He was a man whose faith, like that of Abraham, never faltered, whose zeal never flagged, whose fervor never cooled. As a pastor he was the shepherd of the flock. He spent his days literally driving from house to house, spending a little while here, a little while there, making more visits in the scattered country territory than most busy pastors make in the crowded city. "Yonder comes Uncle Clyde" brought all, father from the field, mother from the domestic duties, children from their play, eager to see and hear his greeting: "Well, how are you reporting today?" The form of that friendly greeting showed that it was frequent, not casual. Somehow it suggested something more than temporal welfare. It made one instinctively think of the welfare of his soul. Frequently the simple, earnest greeting led to an experience meeting. His conversation was spiced with genial humor, full of good cheer, but never frivolous. It was full of friendly interest, full of words of uplift, instruction, inspiration, full of the thought of the Church.

His preaching was truly apostolic. He preached a gospel of redemptive power. He knew how to reach the hearts of men and stir them to decision for Christ. He could stir the emotions of men and then direct them into channels of service. Primarily and throughout of soul-saving quality, his preaching was clear, strong, thoughtful, convincing and at times wondrous in poetic tenderness and eloquent imagery.

He did not spend much time in cloistered study. To the writer it appeared that he spent more time in prayer than in regular forms of secluded study. He was not an omnivorous reader. He was, however, a student of both men and books. His study was in his buggy. As he rode he thought, evidently turning truth over and over in his mind until he knew it fully, until it became a part of his very self. He read only books that were worth while. When he read, he pressed all there was in the book into his own mind and vitalized it with his own thought. He did not get his sermons from the commentaries, but out of his own great loving heart came the great messages that were forged into shape in the furnace of his own great mind. His were the thoughts of which books that live are made. His study was of men, things, God. It was the sort of study that made him truly God's prince, having power to prevail with God and men. He knew men. "There's a heap of human nature in men," was a favorite quotation by him, and none knew that "human nature" better than did he. He knew God. He knew Him through the word which he studied through eyes of love. He knew Him through the constant fellowship and communion of prayer. God seemed as real to him as if He walked with him on his rounds as with Adam in the Garden of the Lord. He knew affairs. He knew the things that stand between men and God, the things that bring men to God. He knew how to bring men to God, how to bring God into their lives.

As a presiding elder he rendered the Church most efficient service. Every interest of the Church was carefully attended to. He spoke with no uncertain sound concerning things that menaced the peace of the Church whenever and wherever these things arose. He was wise is counsel to the preachers of his district and made each one literally his son in the gospel. As a preacher in charge, I should call him a model. Personally, I shall always be grateful for a year under him as his junior preacher. It was an introduction that was a revelation as to the itinerancy even to one born and reared in it. The day will never come when the recollection of his oft used words in advice and direction "My Boy" will not thrill me. Failure could not in any detail be written of the ministry and life of such an apostle. He lived with God on earth. He literally wrought the works of God in the charges entrusted to him. His words and work, his personality, his matchless character are imbedded in the history of the Church in South Carolina during half a century past. He lives in the lives and characters he won and moulded to Christ. He will live on and on among us. He will not soon be forgotten, and even when there lives none who ever saw him in the flesh, none familiar with his name, he will still live in the power for God's glory he put into the lives of others who in turn have passed it on for world blessing.

In only one thing possibly was he disappointed, and that was that he might finish his ministry in the active ranks. To this, however, he was reconciled. He was granted the superannuated relation at the last session of Conference. He did not return to answer to roll call on that list. Weak and suffering in body most of the year, and the last two months in great weakness, on November 3, at eight o'clock in the morning, he left us for the roll call of the Conference above. He had seen the sun rise. With it he was ushered into the light of the eternal day. His body was laid to rest beside that of his devoted wife, Mary Massebeau, "Mollie," he fondly called her, to whom he was married November 20, 1866, and with whom he shared the joys and sorrows of the itinerancy to March 8, 1906, when she preceded him to the home above. Side by side they rest in the cemetery of Union church, Rome circuit. Together they look into the face of their Lord in a golden anniversary. "Forever with the Lord," there is life, immortality in that word. We who loved and have lost awhile follow on, though blinded by our tears, and bye and bye shall greet again those gone before and with them stand face to face with our Lord, "Reporting for duty." E. O. Watson.

MINUTES OF CONFERENCE BROTHERHOOD.

ROCK HILL, S. C., November 27, 1913.

Pursuant to call, the Brotherhood met at 3:30 p. m. in the Methodist Church of Rock Hill, S. C., John O. Willson, President, in the chair. Rev. J. C. Chandler conducted the opening devotions. The Secretary read the Minutes of last meeting, which was approved, and the Treasurer reported the calls during the year, and settlement of same.

The President reported that the Insurance Commissioner of the State had given notice that the Brotherhood was subject to his department, and that an annual fee of $25.00 and a license was required of it. A collection to pay the fee resulted in securing $11.25 ($1.00 was afterwards contributed) and the President assumed the balance. The following resolution was adopted:

"Whereas, The Insurance Department of South Carolina has ruled that under the law of the State the Brotherhood must have a license and must pay an annual fee of $25.00, thus placing our organization under unreasonable burden and putting it in jeopardy;

And, whereas, The Brotherhood is in no true sense an insurance company, but is a pure brotherly benevolence—a plan for helping one another's families at a time of need, and inviting not only all preachers in health and youth, but also the aged and infirm, and even the sick, to join and secure its benefits, and therefore should not be taxed and embarrassed in its operations;

Resolved, That a committee of three, one of whom shall be the President of the Brotherhood, be appointed to secure from the General Assembly of South Carolina, through the Insurance Committee, an amendment to the law by which the Brotherhood shall be exempted from all tax and all control by the Insurance Department of the State."

Rev. H. B. Browne, Hon. George H. Bates, and the President were appointed as this committee.

Revs. S. J. Bethea, W. B. Justus, W. A. Kirby and H. C. Morgan were duly elected members, and the President was requested to call for members at some favorable moment of the Annual Conference session. Lander College Sunday School was nominated and elected to contributing membership.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, John O. Willson; Vice Presidents, J. L. Stokes and G. H. Bates; Secretary and Treasurer, J. Thos. Macfarlane; and the Brotherhood adjourned subject to call.

December 1, 1913.

The Brotherhood was called to order by the President.

The following were elected members: M. M. Brabham, M. Dargan, F. E. Hodges, S. M. Jones, L. D. Gillespie, A. Sassard, W. D. Quick, Paul T. Wood, M. Auld and G. A. Teasley.

On motion, ten dollars of money on hand was ordered to be paid to the President to reduce the sum to be assumed for insurance fee.

The Brotherhood then adjourned sine die.

JOHN O. WILLSON, President.
J. T. MACFARLANE, Secretary.
